Welcome

Dear Seminar Attendees:

We are very excited to have you join us in the Windy City! The 49th Annual NACTT Seminar is scheduled for July 17-19, 2014, at the Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile on Michigan Avenue in Chicago, IL. In addition to great shopping on The Magnificent Mile, Chicago offers a great number of activities, including Pier 19, Lincoln Park Zoo, John Shedd Aquarium, Field Museum, John Hancock Observatory, River and Segway Tours, making it an ideal family vacation venue.

The Trustees Business meeting is on July 16th followed by the Opening Session on July 17th. The NACTT educational programs are some of the finest ever, thanks to the assistance of the NACTT Academy, especially Editor and Advisor The Honorable William H. Brown, who has worked diligently with your Chair to develop the sessions.

We are honored this year to have Dean Erwin Chemerinsky as our Keynote Speaker. Dean Chemerinsky will speak about constitutional and bankruptcy issues related to the United States Supreme Court. Other program highlights will be an informative judicial round table, our annual case law update, as well as several panels geared toward practical aspects of navigating the bankruptcy process. Also, many of the panels this year include a bankruptcy Judge, a Chapter 13 Trustee, a creditor attorney and a debtor attorney. Thus, attendees will be afforded all perspectives.

One special feature this year is the offering of a choice of three breakout sessions, with alternative tracks designed for Trustee staff and Trustee staff attorneys. You will not be disappointed by this year's educational agenda.

Thanks again to the NACTT Academy, the National Data Center, the generosity and support of our sponsors, and the invaluable contributions of our speakers, who make possible these special high quality programs!

Come Be A Part of It!

Margaret A. Burks
NACTT President

Mary Ida Townson, Chapter 13 Trustee
NACTT Vice President and Program Chair
